Why The Maldives Is Hot Right Now: Six New Resorts That Are Seriously Glam

The Maldives: historically seen as one of the most idyllic places on earth to visit, and, of course, considered the destination of choice to kick off married life (it is one of the most popular honeymoon locations in the world), has also been making headlines of late for somewhat darker reasons.

While this region of islands in the Indian Ocean is a dreamy place to be... turquoise seas, improbable white sands and an abundance of marine life bring in around one million tourists a year... its future is unpredictable. Since 80 % of the 1,200 islands are no more than 1m above sea level, scientists have predicted that within 100 years many of them will be uninhabitable or disappeared completely. It is safe to say that its beauty is vulnerable.
