Beach resorts dominate Qantas' 2018 hotel bookings

Qantas Frequent Flyers members collectively have redeemed 4.7 billion points over the course of 2018, with glamorous beach resorts around the world claiming all of the top 10 spots for popularity among the airline's customers.

According to research from Qantas Hotels released today, resorts in Hawaii and Indonesia are the most popular, with Bali properties making up half the list. Back at home, Melbourne was the most popular destination for hotel stays booked using Frequent Flyer points in 2018.
